

The SACAA does not issue Recommendation for the Import of Aircraft Letters any more. The International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa (ITAC) will continue to issue Import Permits for the importation of used or second hand aircraft. For the registration of these aircraft on the South African Register the applicant will have to provide a copy of the SAD 500 Bill of Entry issued by Customs.