

SACAA EMAIL DISCLAIMER

This email legal notice is enforceable and binding on any recipient or addressee in terms of the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act (ECT) 25 of 2002.

This message contains information intended solely for the addressee, which may be legally privileged and is confidential. If you are not the intended recipient, you shall not peruse, use, disseminate, distribute or copy this message or any file attached to this message. If you have received this message in error, please email the sender by replying to this message.

Furthermore, the information contained in this message, and any attachments thereto, is for information purposes only and may contain the personal views and opinions of the author, which are not necessarily the views and opinions of the South African Civil Aviation Authority. The South African Civil Aviation Authority therefore does not accept liability for any claims, loss or damages of whatsoever nature, arising from the reliance on such information by anyone.

Whilst all reasonable steps are taken to ensure the accuracy and integrity of information transmitted electronically and to preserve the confidentiality thereof, the South African Civil Aviation Authority accepts no liability or responsibility whatsoever if information or data is, for whatsoever reason, incorrect, corrupted or does not reach its intended destination. Under no circumstances shall CAA or the sender of this email be liable to any party for any direct, indirect, special or consequential damages, including, without limitation, any loss of profits, business, interruptions, loss of programmes or other data on information handling systems or otherwise, even if CAA or the sender of this email has been expressly advised of the possibility of such damages.

Any agreements concluded with the CAA by using electronic correspondence shall only come into effect once CAA confirmed such contract formation in a flows up or return communication and always subject to the requirements of the ECT Act and general principles of contract law.

No warranties are made or implied that any employee and/or contractor of CAA is or was authorized to create and/or send this communication.

The law of South Africa shall govern this legal notice and email message.
