

Dear students and clients

The SACAA is facing a backlog in finalising applications for re-marking of examinations. Currently an individual from the industry is contracted to act as moderator and unfortunately his availability has been sporadic.

As a solution an internal SACAA moderating team will be put in place and it is anticipated that the backlog will be cleared by the end of November 2017.

We apologize for the inconvenience caused.

Issued by
Personnel Licensing