SACAA and DoT Confirm Resignation of Board Member

The Department of Transport and the South African Civil Aviation Authority (SACAA) today, 09 March 2012, announced the resignation of Mr. Sello Motau as a member of the SACAA Board of Directors. Mr. Motau had been a member of the SACAA Board and the Chairperson of its Audit Committee since 01 April 2011.

“The Board wishes to thank Mr. Motau for his commitment, dedication and contribution to the SACAA and the aviation industry at large. Naturally, we will miss Mr. Motau’s valuable contribution. However, we are confident that the remaining Board members, with the help of management, will be able to continue discharging the organisation’s collective mandate. It will thus be business as usual and this will not in any way affect business continuity nor the day-to-day running of the SACAA,” explained the Chairperson of the Board, Ms Phindile Riba.

The Department of Transport has commenced the process of finding a replacement, and an announcement will be made once a suitable replacement has been found.
